

Toll Group Biography

updated February 2010

Paul Little

Managing Director
Toll Holdings Limited

Mr Paul Little became Toll Holdings' Managing Director in 1986, when he was largely responsible for arranging the Management Buy Out from Peko Wallsend Ltd.

Mr Little won the inaugural Trans-Tasman Business Leader Award in 2005, the CA / Zurich Business Leader Award in 2002, and has led a team that has achieved significant growth for all Toll Holdings shareholders since well prior to the Group listing in 1993. In 2008, Mr Little was awarded the Doctor of Business honoris causa by RMIT University.

In 2010, Mr Little was awarded an Officer of the Order of Australia for service to the development of the transport and logistics industries and service to the community through philanthropic support of sporting and medical research organisations.

Whilst Toll traces its history to the 19th century, the present management team has developed the company into the Asian Region's pre-eminent provider of integrated logistics services.

Toll today, is ranked within the top 50 of the 'ASX Top 150 Listed Companies'.

Mr Little remains the largest private shareholder in the Group.
